Dear Marjorie:

It was a pleasure finally meeting you on March 30, 2009. I very much enjoyed the opportunity to speak to the Armenian Society of Engineers, et al, about climbing Mt. Ararat. You (including everyone who attended the event), were most gracious. Dinner was outstanding and I could not have felt more welcome.

In preparing my lecture, I did some research on the historical affinity of the Armenian people for Mt. Ararat. I am now far more appreciative of the opportunity to travel in Northeastern Turkey and view my travels through Armenian eyes.

If I may ever be of assistance to you in any way, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

When I told Sandi that I would be writing you a letter, she insisted that I express her appreciation for being treated so warmly.

With kindest personal and professional regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

Steven J. Matz
